

VACATING YOUR RENTAL PROPERTY

Once you have made the decision to vacate it is a requirement under the Residential Tenancies Act 1997 to give the managing agent a minimum of 28 days' notice in writing provided that the fixed term of your Residential Tenancy Agreement has expired. If the fixed term of your Residential Tenancy Agreement has not expired, please arrange to discuss your responsibilities with one of our Property Management team.

Assuming your fixed term tenancy agreement has expired and you are occupying the premises on a month to month tenancy, and after we have received your notice to vacate at our office, we will immediately commence inspections with prospective new tenants. These inspections will only be carried out with our Property Management staff in attendance. In the event of you not being home, and unless you advise otherwise, we shall use our office key to show prospective tenants over the property.

Please note: If you have posted, emailed or faxed the attached vacating notice please phone our office as it is your responsibility to ensure that the agent receives this notice.

Should you have any queries regards vacating your property please do not hesitate to contact our rental team.

Yours faithfully,
Professionals Mooroolbark
